Forgive And Live

When we embrace forgiveness, we also embrace peace, hope, gratitude, joy, and general well-being. As we embrace it, we also embrace who we are—love. When we forgive, we are retaking power and control over our own lives. Forgiveness gives us freedom. Otherwise, we live carrying that emotional debt with us.

How to Forgive and Live a Happy Life Again (A Step-By-Step ...

Not only did God forgive us before we repented, he forgave us despite the hurt to himself. This is our problem. We say, "I know I should forgive, but he doesn't know how he's hurt me, and I can't forgive that hurt." Well, God did. There is no desire for revenge on his part. He does not try to pay us back for what we have done.

The movement centered on receiving the forgiveness of God and the willingness to forgive others. Coach McCartney developed a powerful formula that he used at all the PK conferences to help people know something special about God, themselves, and God's purpose for their lives. His formula was "forgive + give = live."

Live To Forgive captures the real-life journey of Dean Smith to forgive, reconcile with, and help save the life of the man that murdered his mom. This true story is one of the most powerful and inspirational films about forgiveness ever made. It will leave you gripping your seat as you follow this intense ride of radical love and compassion. 2:11

Live to Forgive

However, if by "forgive and forget" one means, "I will act as if the sin had never occurred and live as if I don't remember it," then we can run into trouble. For example, a rape victim can choose to forgive the rapist, but that does not mean she should act as if that sin had never happened. To spend time alone with the rapist, especially if he is unrepentant, is not what Scripture teaches.
